

ACADEMIC VOCABULARY

"The Names"; "Scaffolding"; "The World is not a Pleasant Place to be"; "Annabel Lee."

Academic Vocabulary	Definition	Example Sentence
1. encounter	to meet; an unexpected meeting	I had a pleasant encounter Louise when I saw her at the park
2. integrity	the quality in a person of having a strict moral code; honesty	We want to find a club treasurer with a lot of integrity .
3. specific	definite; of a special sort	Recipes are best when they give specific instructions
4. tradition	practice passed down from generation to generation	It is a family tradition to play the fiddle.
5. vary	to modify or alter; to change the characteristics of something	Coach likes to vary the batting order to keep the other team on their toes.

B. Use an Academic Vocabulary word to complete each sentence.

1. When writing about an experiment, be _____ so that you can repeat it to see if you get the same results.
2. Because their results must be true, _____ is an important quality in a scientist.
3. Most of the people I _____ at the science lab are there to satisfy their curiosity.
4. Sometimes it is good to _____ the factors of an experiment to test the results.
5. Our family _____ to study medicine goes back four generations.

C. Write the Academic Vocabulary words in your Reader/Writer Notebook. Practice using these words as you talk and write about the selections in this unit.